MOHAIR

Sheared pile and a velvety handle, in a light, practical fabric for everyday living.

Mohair has a sheared-pile surface that feels velvety to the touch without the bulk of a long pile: it stays a thin fabric that works well and soils less. An important, refined look that asks for no special attention: style and practicality in the same texture. It is the pile you can put anywhere: thin enough to follow seams and buttoning, soft enough to read as a velvet. At 340 g/m² it is the lightest of the pile fabrics in the catalogue.
